Rules

The Regatta will be governed by the International Sailing Federation ISAF Racing Rules of Sailing for 2009-2012 (hereafter referred to as RRS); the prescriptions of the Grenada Sailing Association (GSA); and the issued Sailing Instructions. The regatta is classified as a Category C Event. Racing Rule 30 (Starting Penalties) shall not apply.

The proposed classes are as follows:

- Racing(Spinnaker)
- OneDesign
- Cruiser/Racer(Spinnaker or double headsail)
- Cruiser(Non-spinnaker,single headsail with pole)
- Charter(Non-spinnaker)
- Multihull

Note

Definition of spinnaker will be as specified in the present Caribbean Sailing Association (CSA) Rating Rule.

Handicaps

All classes will race under the 2009 CSA Rating Rule. Boats entering these classes must have a valid CSA rating upon entry.

Charter Class

Charter Class boats shall be in the standard charter configuration (with standard rigging, sails, and equipment) as operated by Mooring, Horizons, etc. Poles, boathooks, oars or other such devices for holding out the headsail are not permitted.

OneDesign

One design fleets (eg J24, Melges 24 etc) require 3 or more boats to have their own class. One Design starts may or may not be combined with the other classes.

Class Splits

The Race Committee may split a class depending on the number of the entries and shall decide in which class a boat may race. The decision of the Race Committee shall be final.

Entries

Eligible boats may be entered by completing and submitting the registration form available:

- on the Regatta website www.SailingCarriacou.com,
- from the Trinidad & Tobago Sailing Association (TTSA) or
- from Grenada Yacht Club.

The entry fee of US $100 per boat may be paid in advance according to instructions on entry form. Entry forms and payment must be submitted to the Committee Desk at the Tyrell Bay Marina no later than 1500 hours on Wednesday 13th January 2009. Late entries may be entertained at the discretion of the Race Committee. Sailing Instructions will be available from Tyrell Bay Marina and on the Regatta Website from 1st December 2009.
